

Australia's Poisonous Plants, Fungi and Cyanobacteria

A Guide to Species of Medical and Veterinary Importance

Ross McKenzie

Publisher: CSIRO Publishing

- The aim of the book is to help people prevent poisonings of humans and animals by plants, fungi and cyanobacteria in Australia.
- It is written for everyone from householders to veterinary and medical professionals and anyone who may come into contact with plants, fungi etc.
- Clearly organised with many photos, maps indicating plant populations, level of danger, etc.

Bats

Working the Night Shift

Greg Richards and Les Hall

Principal photographer: Steve Parish

Publisher: CSIRO Publishing

- A Natural History of Australian ... series.
- Covers all regions of Australia including the capital cities, Lord How Island and Christmas Island
- Everything you could want to know about Australian bats.
- Accompanied by several photos on every page, and maps.
- Reading/study list, indexed, glossary

Red Centre

Peter Walton

Publisher: Currey O'Neil Ross Pty Ltd

- With our Red Centre Garden in mind our wonderful librarian, Catherine, picked up this beautiful book at the Life Line sale for $3.
- Photos accompanied by quotes from explorers, writers, poets and artists.
- Information about many regions in the Red Centre eg. Finke River, Rainbow Valley, Kings Canyon, etc.