

Cape Arid

Philippa and Alex Nikulinsky
Fremantle Press

- Another beautifully produced book from Philippa Nikulinsky, but this time with her husband, Alex.
- Cape Arid National Park is on the far eastern coast of WA and is a bird watchers paradise.
- The Nikulinskys have captured the magnificent plants, animals and landscape and truly done them justice.
- Stephen Hopper collaborated in the book.
- All plants and animals, including insects, are named.

Soul of the Desert

Philippa Nikulinsky
and Stephen d Hopper
Fremantle Arts Centre Press

- Hopper discusses at length the definition of deserts and the landforms encountered therein – very interesting.
- Nikulinsky discusses the development of a painting and demonstrates this with pictures and notes from her own work.
- Her beautiful paintings show the detail of plants and creatures in a way that no photos can compete.
- All plants and animals are named and the book is indexed.

John Gould's Extinct & Endangered Birds of Australia

Sue Taylor
NLA Publishing

- 150 years after John Gould's 7-volume 'The Birds of Australia' Sue Taylor looks at 59 of the most threatened species in this beautiful production.
- Details, under headings for each bird include: Name, Taxonomy, Description, Habitat, Habits, Voice, Diet, Breeding and Threats.
- All images reproduced are Gould's.