

The Beagle

Journal of Museums & Art Galleries of NT
Vol 21
Northern Territory Government
Native tobaccos (Solonaceae: Nicotiana spp.) in Australia and their use by Aboriginal peoples
David Symon

- Abstract: The use of native tobaccos in Australia by the indigenous population is summarised. The choice of Nicotiana species is discussed in relation to their nicotine content. Addiction, ownership, trade and preparation for use are all described.

Aboriginal People and Their Plants

Philip A. Clarke
Rosenberg Publishing

Covers Australia wide aspects of plants for Aboriginal people including:

- cultural importance of plants
- impacts on plants and the landscape
- use and preparation of plants for all purposes
- There are exhaustive notes, references, common and scientific names indexes and a general index.

Australian Plants as Aboriginal Tools

Philip A. Clarke
Rosenberg Publishing

- Aboriginal Hunter-gatherers and their tools
- Plant materials for making artefacts
- Changing Plant uses
- Notes, references, common and scientific names and general indexes.

Missouri Botanical Garden Climatron 50

A Celebration of 50 Years

Missouri Botanical Garden

- Interesting history of the geodesic dome including its renovation
- Wonderful photos
- 3D photos (and specs)
- Something for us to dream about to replace our tired old glass house