

Desert Queen: The Many Lives and Loves of Daisy Bates Susanna de Vries Harper Collins Publishers	Booderee National Park: Jewel of Jervis Bay David Lindenmayer CSIRO Publishing	Barks and Trunks: Rainforest Trees of Eastern Australia Vol 2 Peter Poropat Published by P Poropat
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Meticulously researched account of the life of Daisy Bates</li> <li>• Some repetition and, perhaps necessarily, assumptions</li> <li>• Refutes Daisy's stories of her early life which were accepted by past biographers</li> <li>• Despite being a liar and a bigamist, Daisy Bates' work as an ethnologist and anthropologist were extremely valuable</li> <li>• Her observations have underpinned an understanding of Aboriginal society which has helped Aboriginal people regain their land</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• David Lindenmayer is credited as author but several others made significant contributions</li> <li>• Extraordinary level of biodiversity in its 6,500 ha</li> <li>• Outlines the biology and ecology of Booderee</li> <li>• Richly illustrated with photographs</li> <li>• 3 hr drive – a lovely weekend away!</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Vol 1 93 species, this vol 150, vol 3 on the way</li> <li>• All three vols will become available by apps for iPhones</li> <li>• Brief introductory tips for RF tree observation</li> <li>• RF tree families and distinct bark features</li> <li>• Photographic descriptions of RF types</li> <li>• Photos and full descriptions of species</li> </ul>