

Volunteer Guide Opportunity

- ❖ Passionate about Australian plants?
- ❖ Enjoy spending time outdoors with like-minded people?
- ❖ Keen to expand your skills and knowledge?

The Australian National Botanic Gardens is now recruiting for Volunteer Guides to start in 2024.

No botanic background is required to apply. We offer a training program, mentorship and professional development opportunities to equip you with the knowledge and skills you need for guiding.

Volunteer guides provide:

- Guided walks at 11am and 2pm daily
- Flora Explorer bus tours on weekends, public holidays and during school holidays
- Guided walks and Flora Explorer bus tours for booked groups.

Information sessions will be held online on Thurs 18 Jan at 10:30am, and in person on Wed 24 Jan at 5pm in the ANBG theatrette.
