AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL BOTANIC GARDENS

The Gardens is a national and international attraction as well as a highly regarded scientific institution. With more than 6,500 species planted over 35 hectares it is also the only place in the world where you will find such diversity of Australian native plants in the one location. Set on the lower slopes of Black Mountain in Canberra, the Gardens is a place of great natural beauty.

The Gardens is open every day except Christmas Day. To enjoy free guided walks, or book an electric vehicle for your visit, enquire at the Visitor Centre, open daily between 9.30 am and 4.30 pm, or call 02 6250 9588. To book a group walk contact bookedwalks@friendsanbg.org.au.

For further information about activities and tours visit the Gardens website at www.anbg.gov.au or the Friends website at www.friendsanbg.org.au

 Friends of the Australian National Botanic Gardens

An invitation to enjoy, to learn, to grow ...

... become a Friend

The Friends of the Australian National Botanic Gardens are a diverse group of people who love and support our beautiful Gardens – the largest collection of native Australian plants in the world.

If you love native Australian plants, you will love being a Friend.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- Friends newsletter, Fronds: a wealth of botanical information, news and a program of activities.
- Advance notice of
 - Thursday lunchtime talks on botany and the natural world
 - concerts and dinners.
- Our special interest groups: Botanic Art, Photographic, Growing Friends and Plant Science.
- Our air-conditioned lounge with free tea and coffee, interesting reading and reference books.
- Volunteer opportunities: participate in Growing Friends, Gardens Guides, Herbarium, Seed Bank, seed collecting, Friends Council, Newsletter, helping in the Botanical Resource Centre (a public reference herbarium) and at the Summer Concerts.
- Discounts at the Botanical Bookshop, Floresco in the Gardens Café and the Jindii Eco Spa.
- Up to three-hours free parking daily when visiting the Gardens.

You'll find us an informal bunch of like-minded nature lovers. Invite a friend to join too – everyone is welcome!

Visit our website at: www.friendsanbg.org.au to find out more.

NB: these benefits may change from time to time.

The Friends contribution to the Gardens over the years has been invaluable. Our Friends find membership extremely satisfying and personally rewarding, as we continue to support the conservation, research, educational and recreational work of the Gardens.

GROWING AND SHARING

The Friends organisation was founded in 1990 and has grown rapidly to include a broad group of people from all walks of life, united by a common desire to support and be part of the work of our national native gardens.

Over the years, the Friends have made a significant contribution to all aspects of the Gardens, providing approximately $750,000 for many projects, including:

- the new daisy garden
- Red Centre Garden pavement artwork (the Friends Canberra Centenary gift to the ANBG)
- electric people mover ('Flora Explorer') for motorised Gardens tours
- Cascades water feature
- rainforest fogging and lighting systems
- picnic shelter on the Rock Garden lawn and Education Centre shelter
- development of specialist websites
- electric scooters and wheelchairs for visitors
- classroom microscopes for the education program
- annual schools photographic competition.
