

*You are invited to Dinner to celebrate the Silver Anniversary of the Friends of the ANBG
on Thursday 19 February 2015
at 6.30pm at Floresco in the Gardens.*

Dress? Party attire, of course!

Formed in 1990, the Friends now have more than 2,000 members. Our guest speaker will be Associate Professor Don Beer, formerly a historian at the University of New England and currently a guide at the Australian National Botanic Gardens. Don's topic will be: "'...already a force to be admired" (28 August 1990): the creation and subsequent history of the Friends of the ANBG'.

The evening's entertainment will include a fun Silver Anniversary quiz.

Our delicious Silver Anniversary menu has been specially designed by Floresco's chef. It features superb Australian-themed dishes, including seafood, bush foods, and of course, Australian wine.

The cost of $70 per person includes pre-dinner drink, canapés, entree, main course, and dessert. Additional wine, beer and soft drinks may be purchased at Floresco. (No BYO please)

Come and help kick off the celebrations of our 25th Anniversary year!
